Respect Life Sunday
From the time we are knit together in our mothers’ wombs until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us new opportunities to grow in our relationship with God.

Today the gift of life is threatened in countless ways. Those who are most vulnerable, rather than receiving the protection they deserve, are all too often seen as a burden and as expendable. As new attacks on human life continue to emerge, we can be tempted to despair, but Christ instead offers us unfailing hope.

Hope is not false optimism or empty positivity. Christian hope is something much more profound and goes to the very depths of our identity as followers of Christ.

Hope is the virtue “by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit” (CCC, 1817).

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, “God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end” (Spe salvi 31).

Christians know “they have a future: it is not that they know the details of what awaits them, but they know in general terms that their life will not end in emptiness” (SS 2).

For this reason, a woman experiencing a difficult pregnancy can find the strength to welcome her precious child into the world. A man facing a terminal diagnosis can see that the end of his earthly life is only the beginning of eternal life with Christ.

The Church teaches us that “the one who has hope lives differently” (SS 2). Christ’s promise of salvation does not mean that we will be spared from suffering. Rather, the promise of salvation ensures that even in the darkest moments of our lives, we will be given the strength to persevere. By virtue of this Christian hope, we can face any challenge or trial. When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God. May we hold fast to Christ our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.

Please find more resources on www.respectlife.org

Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in his incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defense of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus’ Name.
Amen.

The Sanctuary

By Deacon Riley

In looking at a painting, what is the first thing we notice? A good artist will tell you that you see exactly what he wants you to see. Take, for example, the painting entitled The Calling of St. Matthew by Caravaggio. The direction our eyes take us tell the story. The first thing we notice is the look of shock on the faces of the onlookers. Following the finger of one of the men, we are directed to a distracted and despondent looking St. Matthew. The onlooker finds himself asking, “Why does everyone look surprised besides him? He seems to be the centerfold of the image?” Finally, we see Jesus hiding in the shadows, calling this sinner to conversion.

A good painter knows how to arrange a focal point in such a way that your eye is immediately directed towards it. As a visitor enters St. John’s for the first time, what will likely be the focal point? The arch above the altar! Our eyes are immediately lifted to the heavens, bringing to mind the grandeur of God the Father. Tracing the path of our eyes downward, we see the story of our salvation. The highpoint of creation. We see an image of the Holy Spirit descending down onto earth, as if being sent by the Father. The third person of the Trinity is surrounded by the words of St. John the Baptist, “Behold the Lamb of God.” Below the window, we see the Sacrificial Lamb Himself. The pinnacle of creation. The crucified Christ.

In the small space between the window and the crucifix, we are able to descend from the infinite to the finite. From the creator to the created. From God to man. On either side of the crucifix, as if embracing our Savior, we see statues of his parents, Mary and Joseph. In just a few seconds, we are able to see the entire Trinity, as well as the reason for our faith. What greater way is there to begin to teach the faith, than through such artistic beauty?

SCHOOL UPDATE
WHAT DOES THE TODDLER PROGRAM AT SJB LOOK LIKE?
During the first 3 years of life, the child develops more rapidly than any other time. At this time, your child absorbs large amounts of information from the environment through observation and experiences within that environment. Since these are the years that lay the foundation for later learning, the learning objectives for this age at SJB include developing skills such as language, concentration, problem solving, visual discrimination and physical coordination while honoring a child’s natural passion for wonder, curiosity, exploration and discovery.

Introduced activities promote independence, order, coordination and concentration as well as support social, emotional, physical and cognitive development.

*Children are working on Self Care: washing, dressing, toileting and eating
*Care of the Environment: cleaning, food preparation and food service, plant care and animal care
*Large Motor (indoors and outside): walking, climbing, running, jumping, balancing, climbing steps and more
*Fine-Motor Skills: reaching, grasping, picking up objects, transferring objects, using tools and utensils and art work
*Language: naming objects, describing actions and intentions, discussing pictures, conversation, music and singing
*Social Skills: developing manners through interactions with peers, teachers, and adult-led small group games

World-famous Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Fatima is Coming to St. John’s

Saturday, October 19th from 5:00—8:00pm

St. John’s is hosting the world-famous International Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Fatima on Saturday, October 19th. This historic image of Our Lady of Fatima has been traveling worldwide since 1947, when it set forth from Fatima to bring Our Lady’s message of hope and peace to a world in need.

The statue was blessed by the Bishop of Fatima who prayed that Our Lady’s presence would accompany the statue on her travels. In 1952, it was blessed by Pope Pius XII, who commented: “In 1946, I crowned Our Lady of Fatima as Queen of the World and the following year, through the Pilgrim Virgin, she set forth as though to claim her dominion, and the favors she performs along the way are such that we can hardly believe what we are seeing with our eyes.”

The statue has visited 100 countries, including Russia and China, and is primarily how the message of Fatima spread throughout the world. Hundreds of favors and graces, including cures, and countless conversions are associated with the image. The presence of this special statue, sculpted by José Thedim based on Sister Lucia’s description of her encounters with Our Lady, is a great gift to our community.

Please join us that day to hear the story of Fatima, pray with us and allow Our Lady to bring the graces of Fatima to all who might not ever be able to make a pilgrimage to Fatima, Portugal.
