Ministry Appreciation

Churches depend on ministers– there are so many things that wouldn’t happen without parishioners stepping up and participating. But other than the need to “get things done”, why is it important?

A parish is a community – a family – and we are to practice charity in our interactions with one another. What does that mean? Charity is the highest form of love, signifying the reciprocal love between God and man that is shows itself in unselfish love of one’s fellow men. St. Augustine tells us that “Charity is a virtue which, when our affections are perfectly ordered, unites us to God, for by it we love him.”

When the renovation of our physical church was completed, Father Carlson spoke of the renovation of our parish – the need for everyone to understand that the parish is a living, breathing entity, and to maintain our vibrant parish life, we all must identify areas in which we are gifted and give of ourselves to truly “renovate” St. John’s! It has been so exciting to see so many people trying new ways to participate in parish life.

In ministering to others, we receive a gift that in many cases, has more value than that which we give! In serving, we receive graces – and have an opportunity to really get to know those with whom we worship. We are provided with opportunities to connect – perhaps to pray for a specific need, distribute the Eucharist, or help to make our physical environment more peaceful and inviting. When we use the gifts God has given us, it is life-giving for each of us.

We need to change the way we refer to those who volunteer here at St. John’s. You are Ministers – whether that means in a liturgical sense, like lectors, sacristans, musicians, servers, ushers, or Extraordinary Ministers of Communion, or other types of ministers: hospitality, grounds & upkeep, maintenance, prayer and pastoral care – all are ministering to our parish community. It is in service to others that we reap the greatest gifts, and participation in a community provides us all with a sense of connectedness and belonging. In the words of St. Francis, it is in giving that we receive.

This weekend, we recognize the sacrifices our parishioners make to serve one another – committing to a schedule to minister, perhaps stepping out of our comfort zones, and being willing to use our God-given gifts for the good of our parish. Thank you to each and every one of you for ministering here at St. John’s!

God bless you,
Megan Adam, Office Manager

Liturgical Expeditions

May: Month of Mary
By Dr. Jacob Benda
Director of Music, Liturgy & Parish Engagement

Regina Coeli

Since 1742, as decreed by Pope Benedict XIV, the church has universally recited the Regina Coeli [Queen of Heaven] during the Easter season at 6:00am, 12:00pm and 6:00pm in place of the Angelus. As you will see, this prayer is infused with the hallmark of the Easter season: JOY.

V. Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
R. For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

V. Has risen, as he said, alleluia.
R. Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.
R. For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray: O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Legend tells us that the Regina Coeli originated with Pope St. Gregory the Great (590-604) when he heard it being sung by angels, but it is now believed that it had its beginnings in the 12th century with the Franciscans who used it in their Office following Compline – this practice is still in use today by all who pray the Divine Office or Liturgy of the Hours.
